D. M. Anderson sold to Miller, of Illinois, 29 yearlings for Oct. 15 to 25 delivery at 4c. W. H. Cummins sold to same eight yearlings and 11 two-year-olds at 4c and $1 premium on the two-year-olds.
Col. J. P. Chandler tells us that a good crowd attended Elmer Warren's sale in Pulaski last week. Cows brought $35 to $48, mules $110, horses $47 to $60, wheat 70c. Farming implements and household and kitchen furniture sold well.
Bob Woods took only four head to the Danville fair, but he got his share of the blues with them. He got the blue on jennet under two years, mare and male colt, suckling colt either sex and mare and colt either sex. He got a red on King Eagle, a three-year-old stallion. His filly colt by Eagle Bird was greatly admired.
Lutes & Co. sold to G. S. Shealy 330 stock ewes at $3.40, to Lee Riker, of Mercer, 35 ewes at $4.13. They shipped a double deck load of wethers to Cincinnati, on which they realized $3.25 at home. They sold to a Washington county man 200 good stock ewes at $4.50 and to Dink Wilkinson 12 1,250-pound cattle at 4c and $1 per head.
COURT DAY.—A good crowd attended court yesterday and there was some activity in cattle trading. All of the 138 cattle at A. B. Florence's pens changed hands, the highest price being 44c. They were of rather common grade. Butcher stuff was lively at 34c to 36c. M. J. Farris and B. G. Fox bought a number of mules at $70 to $125. Horses were dull. There were 436 sheep and most of them sold.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Thermometers registered as high as 102 at Lancaster Friday.
John Childers, catcher for the Pineville base ball club, had his jaw broken in a game.
P. L. Wilson has been appointed postmaster at Kimble, Russell county, vice J. C. Acree, removed.

T. V. Ferrell purchased of Thomas McBeath, known as the Vickery property, comprising about four acres with a residence, barn and six cottages thereon, for $3,100.—Somerset Journal.
A telegram to banker John M. Higginbotham announces the death of William H. Hatt, a Lancaster boy, at Springfield, Mo. He is the third member of his family to die in a short while.
Of Mr. Samuel A. Newell, who died at Somerset last week, the Journal says: "He was a man of prominence in the community, based upon his solid merits and exemplary character. Some of his lovable characteristics were brought out by interviews with those who knew him best. He had long been one of the chief directing spirits in public affairs of the county. He was a man of great energy of purpose, untiring industry, and methodical habits; accomplished with fidelity and ability, whatever he undertook. No man enjoyed more fully the respect and confidence of the community, and today the thoughts of all who knew him are sorrowful and sad at his demise."

HUBBLE.

Ben Hughes has moved back from Cincinnati. Rans Carman's saw mill has been taken to Casey county to do some sawing there. Miss Mamie Parrish has returned to her home in Spencer county, after making many friends here, while visiting Miss Lela Robinson.

Luce Bros. bought some ewes of Geo. Wood at $4.50. Tom McBeth, of Somerset, was up to attend the Danville fair and see after the farm he bought here a few months ago. John M. Rankin, of Wayne county, has bought R. H. Hubble's one-half interest in the Gentry farm for $6,000 and will move to it Jan. 1, or before.

Low rates West. Railroad bargain days via the Monon route. Prospecting parties and tourists will be furnished with schedules and further information by addressing E. H. Bacon, District Passenger Agent, Monon Route, Louisville, Ky.

IT SAVED HIS BABY.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. H. J. Doak, of Williams, Ore. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by Craig & Hocker.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of the 34th Mass. when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thoughts of sleep fled from her mind, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and her further cure was complete. This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Chest and Lung diseases. Only 50c and $1 Trial bottles free at Penny's drug store."

Low rates to Louisville via Queen & Crescent. From all points in Kentucky during the fair one fare for round trip will be made account the two great colored fairs at Louisville, Aug. 14, 18 and Aug. 21 to 25. Edgar Connor shot and killed Levi Goodpaster in a fight at Owingsville, and while under arrest for it, he snatched the officer's pistol and committed suicide.

E. W. Bowman was seriously, if not fatally, injured by the explosion of a barrel of brandy at Paducah. It is stated that 90 per cent of the gold democrats of Illinois will vote for Bryan.

POLITICAL.

The Blue Grass Clipper is supporting W. B. Moody for Congress.

Gov. Beckham accepted the invitation of the Lexington Elks to formally open the fair today.

Judge James Gregory was declared the democratic nominee for Congress in the Fifth, no one entering against him.

The Texas democratic convention at Waco adjourned after nominating a State ticket headed by Joseph D. Sayers for governor.

Mayor Head, of Nashville, has resigned as a member of the National democratic executive committee and Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, N. Y., has been appointed in his place.

Recorder Armstrong, of Clark county, Ind., says his county will give Bryan 600 majority, while in 1896 it gave McKinley 150 majority. He thinks Indiana safe for the democracy.

Leslie Combe has resigned his job to run the republican campaign, but John W. Yerkes has to much sense to do likewise. Yerkes will keep on being revenue collector until Mr. Bryan appoints somebody in his place.—Hopkinsville New Era.

William J. Bryan will make no such extended speech-making tour of the country as he did four years ago. He will make a number of speeches, but they will be all in connection with special occasions and not part of a general swinging around the country.

Editor John Meloon has sold his interest in the Kentucky State Democrat, Frankfort, to the Rev. Lew G. Wallace, Mr. Meloon having accepted a clerkship in the office of Auditor Coulter. Mr. Wallace is a vigorous writer. He will make the Democrat a daily during the extra session of the Legislature.

The democratic committee of the Seventh Congressional district, met at Frankfort Saturday and ordered a primary to be held Sept. 29 to settle the Trimble-Moody contest in that district. Mr. Moody still says that he will not go into the primary and that he will take the case to the courts for a decision as to who is the legal nominee.

E. L. Godkin, editor of the New York Evening Post, who was vehement in denunciation of Bryan in 1896, is now out with an open letter, in which he says: "My opinion of William McKinley and the men who surround him and act with him is that they are the most dangerous set of scoundrels by which any civilized country was ever beset."

By order of Gov. Beckham, State Inspector Hines will examine into the accounts of ex-Adj. Gen. D. R. Collier and of County Clerk Frank A. Pasteur, of Caldwell county. Mr. Pasteur, it is charged, has made no report to the State auditor since June 5, 1899. Col. Collier, on January 31 last, drew $10,044.13 on a State warrant and no record has been found of the use to which the money was put. Mr. Pasteur is another "Brownie."

LAST EXCURSION TO ATLANTIC CITY.

—On Thursday, Aug. 16th, the Chesapeake & Ohio will run its annual excursion to Atlantic City and Cape May. Tickets will be sold for both morning and evening trains for $14 for round-trip, from Lexington, Winchester and Mt. Sterling, good returning until Aug. 27th. Through sleepers for Atlantic City will leave Lexington on the F. E. V. Limited at 11 A. M. reaching Atlantic City next afternoon. Sleepers to Washington only on night train. Atlantic City is the most popular sea-side resort and a visit there is never to be forgotten. Send in your names for sleeping car reservation, or any information you desire. George W. Barney, Div. Pass. Agt., Lexington, Ky.

The laws of health require that the bowels move once each day and one of the penalties for violating this law is piles. Keep your bowels regular by taking a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when necessary and you will never have that severe punishment inflicted upon you. Price 25 cents. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Attorney General Breckinridge, in an opinion furnished to the secretary of State, holds that notaries public appointed by W. S. Taylor after Jan. 31 are not legal officers, can not recover fees paid to republicans claiming to be State officials and must pay additional fees if they wish to receive new commissions.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physician. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

There is no crier to the robbers who killed Express Messenger Lane on the Pennsylvania railroad between Columbus and Urbana, O.

A. H. Rayburn sold to M. J. Farris a mule for $70.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Eight runaway couples reached Bristol on an excursion from Virginia. All were married with one ceremony by Parson Burroughs.

THE POWERS TRIAL.

The evidence in the Powers case closed yesterday and the jury was then taken to the scene of the killing. V. Bradley, Golden, Hendrick, Campbell and Franklin will speak for the Commonwealth and Sims, Denny, Tinsley, Owens and Brown for defense in order named. The judge announced that Youtsey's trial would begin as soon as Powers' is over. The following is the evidence since our last issue:

Mrs. John Davis said Powers was at her home sick Jan. 25 all day after between 10 and 11.
Judge Wilder, of Corbin, said Noaks told him he knew nothing of the conspiracy to kill Goebel and also thought Powers innocent as a lamb.
Georgetown operator said Noaks telegraphed to Indiana July 26 to Miss Blankenship to return his letters quick.

W. R. Day, ex-treasurer, heard Powers on Jan. 29 talking to main officer of the L. & N. about transportation.

Heard Taylor say he wanted a Western Kentucky crowd. Went to Louisville with Powers the day Goebel was killed. Told the same tale as Powers about trip. He was told by Youtsey shortly before the assassination that the contest could be settled for $300.

Youtsey didn't say how, but his manner showed something was wrong and the witness left him. Two letters were produced which Day admitted he wrote to C. H. Hill March 28 and April 3, in which he almost says that Youtsey is the assassin. He tells Hill to tell Commonwealth's attorney to have him summoned. Saw Youtsey on the day of the Van Meter contest with a gun at the window of the room between Powers' and the governor's office. Window was raised and blind half down. Witness spoke to Todd, who made Youtsey move. This was before the $300 proposition was made. Defense here rested in chief, having introduced 61 witnesses against 74 for the Commonwealth. The failure of Yost and Bradley to appear as witnesses according to promise, caused much comment.

Rev. John Stamper was then introduced by Commonwealth with the view of contradicting him. He denied that he said to certain persons that everything Golden said was true, but admitted he said he believed a great portion of it. Admitted he told J. C. Cantrill everything Golden said was true. Henry Bazelwood and J. B. Watkins heard James Sparks say Goebel was never to be governor, that he would be killed and Taylor would pardon the assassin and that the pardons were all ready made out except names. This was on Wednesday before the shooting. Sparks denied saying this.

Z. T. Lusby, a Georgetown policeman, heard Stamper say he believed everything Golden said and was in sympathy with the prosecution.
W. L. Jett saw Miles arrest Whitaker and denied that he made threats to occupants of building.
W. F. Grayant, assistant auditor, said only $5,000 of reward fund has been used. Culton was paid his salary in December and January. This contradicts Stone.

Jailor Pfanz, of Louisville, said S. H. Stone complained that Culton was not receiving proper treatment and that he was a good fellow of fine family and could be trusted anywhere.

Three witnesses contradicted Barber Harkwood, of Barbourville, about Wharton Golden saying he was in the $100,000 reward and exhibiting a roll of bills.

A. L. Reid and Z. Settle contradicted Attorney Sparks materially.

Six Frankfort merchants whose stores are opposite the Capitol, saw no evidence of a mob after the shooting. No attempt to attack the building and no need of troops.

Julian Kelsey, of the Frankfort militia, said State troops were placed on war footing before the election. Sheriff Suter said Collier offered to place troops at his disposal provided Collier remained boss. Offer refused because they were not needed.

The statement that democrats were ready for a fray with arms and ammunition was disproved by several.
Asst. Librarian Kavanagh and Sergeant-at-Arms Haley saw Powers on Capitol grounds between 4 and 5 P. M., Jan. 25 in close conversation with Chas. Finley and Wharton Golden. This is the day Noaks claims he heard him conspire. Powers previously swore that he was sick in bed all that day.

S. A. Pettit said Attorney Sinclair had said that the shot sounded like it came from the office of the secretary of State. Sinclair said he did not say it.

J. W. Daugherty, Gen. Breckinridge's colored porter, contradicted John Perkins, Collier's porter. Perkins had told him he did not carry an order to the arsenal calling out the militia and that he would not swear it.

Robt. Noaks offered to read his letters to Miss Blankenship, for which he had telegraphed, but defense didn't want to hear them.

James Walker, colored, heard John Perkins say he had not carried Collier's order to arsenal for militia and that he would not so testify although they wanted him to.

A train ran into an omnibus at Station, Pa., killing 11 people and wounding many more.

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) College of Kentucky, offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate courses of study are also provided, leading each to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than 30 professors and instructors.

County Appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses.

The last Legislature appropriated $30,000 for a college home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men.

Military tactics and science are fully provided for and required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply.

Last year the matriculation list was 563.
For catalogues, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study and terms of admission, apply to
